The purpose of data processing

The purpose of data processing is to facilitate contact and to create registration and access possibilities for registration-related activities. When visiting the site, improve user experience and create visitor statistics.

The legal basis for data handling

Data processing is done through freely given, specific, informed, unambiguous and withdrawal consent of the data subject, by filling out forms, using checkboxes and buttons.

Duration of data handling

Visit data will only be processed until the statistics are completed, and then automatically anonymized or deleted. The contact information is stored only for the duration of the communication, and then if no other legal basis is created (eg, the conclusion of a contract), it will be deleted. The registration data will be stored until the user has been deleted by the user, and then deleted.

Persons accessing data and data processors

The data may be accessed by the administrator, the sales director, the chief financial officer, the IT manager, and the data protection officer.

Your rights

1. Right of access

You may be required to provide information about what information is stored in connection with you. In the application you specify:

- your name
- when and what activity has been done on the website
- how to request the information (by e-mail, by post, in person).

The Company will evaluate your request within 25 days.

2. Right to rectification

You have the right to correct any data stored on you (such as an email address) if they are inaccurate. The request must include its name, the incorrect and the correct information. The Company will evaluate your request within 25 days.

3. Right to erasure (“right to be forgotten”)

You have the right to request deletion of your data. The Company will evaluate your request within 25 days.

Submitting applications

Applications must be submitted in writing (personally, by post or by electronic means) to the Data Protection Officer of the Company.
